

Volume One

HCAAdoc.com

Looking for physician and provider-related information and resources? HCA's exclusive, provider online resource is a secure site that offers you the opportunity to collaborate with your peers, link to timely articles and message boards, access online learning resources, and get the latest news about HCA's EHR projects. The site is a collection of communities, including a Wave 5 Physician Leaders community, an eLearning community and more. eLearning resources cover a number of projects, including Advanced Clinicals with CPOE, Speech Recognition and ED PDoc.

SIGNING IN FOR THE FIRST TIME

If you are a Wave 5 provider, your name has been added to HCAAdoc.com. Just log in for the first time to begin exploring HCAAdoc.com.

1. Go to <http://HCAAdoc.com>
2. Enter your HCA 3-4 ID
3. Enter an initial password of hca123

You will be directed to a Terms and Conditions page. After accepting the terms, you will have the opportunity to change your password.

If you have questions, contact your facility Director of Advanced Clinicals (DAC).

PHARMACIST NOTES IN PDOC

- Clinical Pharmacist's Progress and Consult Notes will now be documented via PDoc and accessible and easily viewed by other clinical staff through Clinical Review or PCI.
- All pharmacy notes will be located under a separate Note Titled: Pharmacology Progress Note or Pharmacology Counseling Note.
- Clinical Pharmacist's notes include medication dosage management and monitoring such as antibiotic monitoring, anticoagulant management, and pain medication monitoring. Also, pharmacists will be documenting any medication counseling in PDoc as well. Via Other Reports button in Clinical Review:
